WANT BILL FOR TEXAS FLOOD CONTROL!

BRAZOS RIVER RECLAMATION ASSOCIATION DESIRES SURVEY

Meeting at Bryan Decided to Appoint Legislative Committee to Draft Bill Asking Topographical and Hydrographic Survey—President Lawrence Will Appoint Committeeman From Each County.

(By E. L. WALL, Staff Correspondent of The News.)

BRYAN, Nov. 30.—Plans for a vigorous appeal to the legislature at its next session for an appropriation to make a flood control survey along the Brazos River were outlined here today at a meeting of the Brazos River Reclamation Association. When the lawmakers meet in January a bill carrying all the necessary features will be ready for their consideration and a well organized committee from about thirty-five interested cities will be ready to throw influence behind it. The legislative committee is to be composed of one member from each county along the course of the river and one from each railroad and other large corporation interests. An additional committee of five members will be selected to draw up a bill and ascertain that it will stand the test of the legislature and the courts. President John M. Lawrence of Bryan, was empowered to appoint both committees and indicated that he would do so without delay. With but little more than thirty days in which to prepare their case flood control forces are tightening their organization and, it was declared, will proceed at once to work in earnest.

Survey of Brazos River

It is proposed to ask the legislature first for a moderate sum, $150,000 being suggested, to make a comprehensive topographical survey along the Brazos and its principal tributaries. The appropriation will be asked for on the basis of a promise that when, as it is believed certain, this survey will have determined the feasibility of a system of flood control along the lower valley by impounding water along the upper reaches of the stream, the interested counties to take steps to see that this information is utilized. That a community of active interests already exists between water conservationists in the drier counties upstream and those desiring flood control nearer the coast, was strikingly brought out in overtures from Mineral Wells, W. W. McLendon, an engineer from that city, representing the Chamber of Commerce and told of the proposal to erect a gigantic dam on the Brazos at a site near Mineral Wells, which should create one of the largest artificial lakes in the country, comparable with Roosevelt dam. Mineral Wells and Palo Pinto county interests, Mr. McLendon said, are anxious to co-operate in this respect with counties further down the river, realizing that theirs is a proposition too large to be carried out locally. The site in mind, he added, has been pronounced by eminent engineers to be ideal for the purpose.

Mineral Wells Plan Commended

A. D. Jackson, of A. & M. College secretary of the association, described Palo Pinto as one of the key counties of the whole system and declared if the river were dammed as suggested the counties below need look no higher for a point at which to begin control of the flood waters. Today's meeting was called more for the purpose of taking definite action than of arousing public interest. A propaganda campaign was carried on last summer when a disastrous flood was still fresh in the memory of river residents. Officials are convinced that all interests concerned are converted to the desirability of taking definite steps to check the flood menace. Although but few of the counties indicating willingness to co-operate had representatives, letters were received from others giving assurance of their interest and participation. Counties represented today included Brazos, Brazoria, Burleson, Grimes, Palo Pinto and Milam.

Brazos River Survey

Mr. Jackson stated that considerable data already have been obtained by the federal engineering department on the Brazos for an old navigation proposition which was disapproved. Maps and records of this survey, he was told by Major L. M. Adams, engineer in charge of the Galveston district, are filed away, and will be available for whatever they are worth. Mr. Jackson suggested that these records be sent, and that they will probably save considerable detailed engineering work. To insure a live legislative committee, representing an interested constituency, it was decided to make payment of expense assessments by the county units a basis of representation on the committee. Some of the counties already have made pledges, but it was explained that no haste had been made by the organization to collect them, since sufficient cash subscriptions had been paid in by railroads and others interested to care for expenses thus far, which have been considerable. County subscriptions have been held more or less in reserve. Confidence was expressed that these will be forthcoming, and others will be made when necessary. Expenses are expected to be heavier when the legislature opens, since it is intended to maintain a committee always on the ground to carry on an energetic lobby for the proposition. The sentiment of the Brazos River counties is that they are willing to co-operate or join forces with other areas similarly situated with respect to flood control but that no time must be lost in starting the movement on its way. Hence the committee will go before the lawmakers with a bill providing for a Brazos River proposition, this including of course the watershed which controls the flood situation along the stream.

GROUP OF LEGISLATORS DISCUSS GREAT NEED OF NEW CONSTITUTION

(Houston Post Special.)

AUSTIN, Dec. 6.—An appropriation of $150,000 with which to begin flood control measures will be presented to the next legislature in the form of a bill, it was announced here today following a conference between interested legislators. This body is headed by Leonard Tillotson of Sealy, president of the Texas Conservation congress. The work, if the appropriation is granted, will be started on the Brazos, Trinity and Colorado Rivers, it was announced. Shortly before the convening of the legislature in January a conference will be held by those interested in a constitutional convention, at which time some agreement will be reached whereby a plan will be formed that will assure the passage of the measure. This announcement was made here today by Representative Lee J. Rountree, of Bryan, who is conferring with the attorney general's department on the question. Messrs. Tillotson and Rountree advised with Engineer L. A. Stiles and John A. Norris while here.

Satterwhite Responsible

After the people have acted then the legislature may be called in special session for the transaction of whatever legislation should be necessary. Representative Satterwhite is responsible for this program. It came out of his mental workshop and his fellow-lawmakers named in this story are in hearty accord with him.

"I believe that Texas needs a new constitution," said Representative Dunn to the writer, "and I have no quarrel with any of my fellow-lawmakers as to the number of delegates that is necessary to frame a constitution. If they insist on 131 let it go at that. If they insist on 3 delegates from each senatorial district and 8 delegates to be elected at large let it go at that. I agree with the governor that Texas needs a new dress. I shall vote to give Texas a new dress and I am not bothering my head concerning the details."

Wants Three Delegates

Representative Satterwhite, if he had his way, would provide for the election of three delegates from each senatorial district or 93 in all to be elected by districts, but he will interpose no strenuous opposition to the plan of electing 8 or 12 delegates at large. Representative Rountree, like Representatives Satterwhite and Dunn, insists upon a new constitution and this, too, without delay. He believes the state needs it, he hopes the people are for it and he is in favor of going ahead before the regular legislative program shall be taken up.

In talking with a group of representatives today in Austin Representative Rountree said: "I believe Mr. Satterwhite is correct in desiring the settlement of the constitutional convention question the first of the January session. I am not so much concerned whether 93, a 101 or 150 men shall write a new constitution for Texas as in the fact that it must be done. We could reserve four or five of the great declarations in the constitution—the Bill of rights, the homestead law, prohibition and equal suffrage without ever even debating there in the legislature and then if a convention could not submit a safe constitution it ought to fail. But we must not fail as a new procedure in the state is imperative."

CONFERENCE HELD ON RECLAMATION BILL

(Special to Dallas News)

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 5.—A conference was held here today in the interest of an agreed bill to inaugurate the reclamation and flood control work in Texas through adequate initial appropriations by the legislature. Recommendation for appropriations for topographic and hydrographic surveys of Brazos, Trinity and Colorado rivers has been made by Board of Control, it was said by those in today's conference, the following being present. Leonard Tillotson, Sealy, president of the Texas Conservation Congress; John M. Lawrence, Bryan, president of the Brazos River Reclamation Association; Representative Lee J. Rountree, Bryan, vice president, and Ward Templeman, Grimes county, also vice president of the Brazos River Reclamation Association. Conferences were held with the attorney general, members of the State Board of Water Engineers and the State Reclamation Engineer and State Board of Control and bill will be prepared for an appropriation for the work.

INCREASED P. O. BUSINESS

Postmaster W. D. Lawrence states that for September and October the receipts at the postoffice are nearly $800 or $400 per month greater than in September and October, 1921. This is only an indication of general business conditions throughout this section.

MONTHLY BAPTIST WORKERS MEETING OF BRAZOS COUNTY

The monthly Baptist Workers' meeting took place at the Baptist Tabernacle Monday December 4th. Representatives from a number of churches and several visitors from Robinson county were present. In the forenoon conference was conducted as follows: Rev. R. L. Brown of Bryan spoke on "Co-operation in Financing the Kingdom," and this was followed by a discussion. It was brought out in the discussion by the principal speakers that while Baptists had made remarkable showing in baptisms and growth of schools, hospitals and Sunday schools and young people's societies, they needed to make improvements in their gifts to God's cause. It was shown that if Baptists of the South alone would tithe, they would pay in the Lord's treasury, not only 75 millions in five years, but one hundred million every year. The address of Rev. Brown made a profound impression. Dr. Jno. A. Held discussed the subject of "Co-operation in Leadership," and emphasized the necessity of confidence in the leaders. The times are of peculiar restlessness. Everybody is doubting everybody else. As Christians it is highly necessary that people help instead of hinder in the work which needs so much to be done. He also gave emphasis to two other suggestions. One, that we need to co-operate with our leaders. Another, that we need to pray for them. The one great need is to pray more for ourselves and also for others. The workers conference in every way took high ground for more effective endeavor in doing the work of developing our rural churches and go out in winning the lost to the Savior.

In the afternoon the ladies had a very profitable meeting, looking to the better co-operation between the rural churches, one with the other, and emphasizing the value of the women's work in the churches. Those present were Messrs Brinkley and Sample of Tabor, W. H. Buchanan and John Sabo of Kurten, Mrs. Dr. Lee of Welborn, Mrs. Borpo Smith and Mrs. Carl Jones of Reliance, Mrs. Tabor of Rock Prairie, H. P. Dinsby, C. S. Jones, Rev. J. J. Pippin, Rev. R. L. Brown and others of Bryan. This was said to have been the best meeting of the Brazos county workers that has yet been held. The next meeting will take place the second Monday instead of the first on account of New Year's Day coming on the 1st.

MILAM COUNTY OIL PRODUCTION GROWS

ROCKDALE, Texas, Dec. 6.—Following the recent advance of 15¢ a barrel for Rockdale-Minerva crude by the Owens Refining and Pipe Line Company, the second advance of 10¢ more has been posted, bringing the price up to $1.50. The refinery pipe line runs for November showed an average of 351 barrels a day. Several new completions with good natural flowing production since November tickets were booked, bring the daily average up to considerably above 400 barrels a day. The Lee-Haus Company's No. 1 Niehaus is making 40 barrels natural; H. B. & Otto Glass' No. 4 Moore is flowing 32 barrels; the Texas Plains Syndicate's No. 3 Niehaus is making better than 20 barrels. The total new production is 107 barrels a day, or a total for the field of 458 barrels a day.

ANDREWS-WILLIAMS WED.

On Saturday, November 25th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Williams of North Zulch, their daughter Miss Eunice Williams was given in marriage to Mr. Earle Andrews of Bryan, Rev. J. T. Swanwick, pastor of the Baptist church of North Zulch, officiating, reading the impressive ring service. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with quantities of white and lavender chrysanthemums. Immediately after the ceremony congratulations and good wishes extended, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews came to Bryan, where they will make their home and are at home to their friends with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Andrews, parents of the groom. The bride is one of the efficient teachers of the Madison county schools and is well known in Bryan and Brazos county, having lived for some years at Wellborn and her many friends will give her a cordial welcome to Bryan. The Eagle joins with the many other friends in extending good wishes and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Andrews.

DEAN KYLE AND PROF. ELLIS GET CONTRACT ON AGRICULTURAL BOOK

"Fundamentals of Farming and Farm Life" First Book Adopted by the State Text Book Commission Now in Session at Austin—The Contract Will be a Large One.

(Special to The Bryan Eagle.)

AUSTIN, Dec. 6.—The State Text Book Commission made its first adoption today, when it awarded a six-year contract to Charles Scribner's Sons to supply the book in elementary agriculture under the title of "Fundamentals of Farming and Farm Life," at $1.10 a copy, with exchange price of 90c. The joint authors are E. J. Kyle, professor of horticulture, and dean of the School of Agriculture, Texas A. and M. College and A. C. Ellis, professor of the philosophy of education, the University of Texas. This displaces "Elementary Principles of Agriculture," by Ferguson and Lewis, which has been selling for 60¢ and was bid this time at 85¢ a copy. This is a large contract, as three years ago 67,816 copies of the book on agriculture were sold, 26,848 the second year and 17,270 the third year with this year yet to be heard from. It is possible that an award in arithmetic may be made Wednesday, as the board is proceeding with the presentation of the large number of arithmetic texts now in use are offered at the present prices.

PROHIBITION RAID IN GRIMES COUNTY

(Navasota Examiner-Review)

The details of a raid by a party of officers of Sheriff Stewart's department and prohibition enforcement officers from Houston have been secured from the Sheriff's office at Anderson. Five prohibition officers participated in the raid, information as to the location of a still a few miles south of Iola having been received in advance. Sheriff Stewart and Deputy Fabian, accompanied by the Houston officers, arrived at Iola Saturday morning and proceeded to the place where they had been informed the still was in operation at a place known as the Burns place, according to the report reaching this city. Upon their arrival at the Burns place it is said that the officers encountered some opposition and a number of shots were fired before they succeeded in controlling the situation. After a search, about half a gallon of liquor was found and a barrel of mash, besides the still, which was destroyed. It is said that three of the men who are believed to be connected with the operation and a number of shots were fired before they succeeded in controlling the situation. A DRASIC CATTLE SHIPMENT RULE AFFECTS BRAZOS COUNTY

FORT WORTH, Dec. 7.—Cattle from 61 Texas counties, recently released from quarantine, must be shipped to Fort Worth, dipped and inspected before a permit for interstate shipment will be issued, according to a ruling made here Tuesday by the United States Bureau of animal industry officials. The new order is due to the finding of a light infection in the counties in question. This order and the reason given for it are regarded here as serious blow at the tick eradication work in Texas. Federal officials freely admitted that the work is in danger of reverting back to this original status and that another start will have to be made. A statewide meeting has been called here for December 4 by the federal officials to discuss the general tick situation in Texas, especially the discovery of the new infection in the 61 counties which had been ordered released from quarantine. Counties affected are: Parts of Anderson and Lamar, and the whole of Archer, Bandera, Bell, Blanco, Bosque, Bowie, Brazos, Burnet, Camp, Coleman, Comanche, Cooke, Coryell, Dallas, Denton, Edwards, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Franklin, Freestone, Grayson, Gillispie, Gregg, Hamilton, Harrison, Hill, Hood, Hopkins, Hunt, Jack, Johnson, Kaufman, Kendall, Kerr, Kimble, Lampasas, Lee, Limestone, Llano, McLennan, Mills, Morris, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Rains, Real, Red River, San Saba, Smith, Stephens, Tarrant, Titus, Travis, Upshur, Van Zandt, Williamson and Wood.

Entered at the postoffice at Bryan, Texas, April 23, 1912, as second class matter under act of congress March 8, 1878.

There seemed to be more concern in Waco over the punishment of the negro who killed young Skipworth and outraged his woman companion than the capture of the brute. Better secure the criminal and then protect him. There is too much sobbing over mob law in Texas and not enough demand for the enforcement of the law. We have too many sober-sisters wearing breeches. Enforce the law!

AGGIES WON OVER
TEXAS LONGHORNS

(By Lee J. Rountree.)

Probably the greatest game of football ever staged in Texas football Thanksgiving Day 1922 on Clark field in Austin between the Texas Aggies and the Texas Longhorns, who are described as "ancient enemies" in the press dispatches. When Coach Bible walked out on the famous gridiron as the spectacular demonstration of the Longhorns, the lovely co-eds, Cowboys and Texas longhorn steer, clasped and shook hands with his men, whispering a word of parting and patting them affectionately on the back. I imagined I heard him say: "Boys, we have confidence and faith in you on this day." It was a wonderful sight. The glorious sun gleamed for a moment from behind the rifted clouds on the colors of the Red and White and the White and Gold. There were 22,000 people assembled which breaks all Texas records. Something somehow made me say to Col. Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald, who is a Texas man and sat beside me: "Hugh, we are going to win."

COL. FITZGERALD STOLID.

Col. Fitzgerald has reported many great conventions and assemblages and was as stolid as the eternal sphinx before the Pyramids of Egypt and the shifting sands of the Libyan desert. The great athletic contests in the Roman arena were recalled and he said: "In all ages sports have been the predominant pleasures of all people. Football is the greatest of all sports."

The betting odds were against the Texas Aggies. I saw one big fellow standing out in front of the Driskill hotel and in a loud voice declared "I'll get a $1,000 that the Longhorns win." But just then the Aggie band, the flower of Texas, wheeled into Sixth street, playing martial music and his voice was lost in the din of the band.

SAID AGGIES COULDN'T WIN

Everywhere it was stated the Aggies couldn't win. It was said they had never won over the Longhorns on Clark Field since hostilities had been resumed. Since 1894 the Aggies had not won but once on Clark Field and that was before the Houston game of 1912 when it was Aggies 13, Longhorns 0. I say Anne Fairman, the beautiful little Aggie mascot sitting on the front line with her father W. R. Fairman of Bryan, and she said: "We are going to win."

She had the faith of all the ages and said to Col. Fitzgerald that it was settled. After the game the little girl mascot of the Longhorns weptingly said to Anne "You are the luckiest little girl in the world, but we are heartbroken."

GREAT STRUGGLE ON

Referee's whistles blew amid the cheering thousands. The Aggies played the Longhorns to a standstill in the first half, which ended with the two teams tied, 7 to 7. Aumble by Marley during the first few moments of play gave the Aggies an opportunity for their touchdown. The ball was in Aggie territory most of the half, but Texas was held down at critical times. The Aggies held their opponents on their own three yard line on one occasion. Tynes starred for the University during the half while McMillan and Miller showed up best for the Aggies. Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of A. & M. College, with a party, were enthusiastic on the 50 yard lines. The Aggies were playing supreme ball. No question about their prowess. I couldn't see Coach Bible and Manager Sullivan, but I saw Mayor Tyler Haswell, Walter J. Coulter, Lawrence Parker, Sam E. Eberstadt, E. H. Astin, J. S. Mooring, George G. Chance, Jno. M. Lawrence Jr., and others. They were playing as hard as the Aggie stars, Johnson and McMillan. Colonel Fitzgerald was about broken hearted. It looked like an Aggie victory and the enthusiasm was sweeping. I told him of other games to soothe him, speaking of the famous Missouri Tigers and Texas game away back in the 90's. Judge Lamar Beethea of Bryan knows something of this famous game and its far-reaching effects in Mexico. Governor Pat M. Neff and party came in after the play had begun and there was hardly a vacant place in the field and hundreds were standing at the gates and on surrounding rooftops. Tidie Thornton of the Dallas-Galveston News, another loyal Longhorn supporter, sat in front of me and cheered some but he saw that the immortal fighting spirit of the Aggies had swept across the "Rubicon" and was marching on to Rome, as it were. Luther Stark of Orange, Judge John W. Hornsby of Austin, District Attorney Dan J. Moody of Austin, Senator Tom Pollard of Van Zandt county and other dear friends of mine, were not so jubilant for they were not standing on backs of seats and cheering as in the beginning. Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the state University was as calm as perfect ease could suggest. The bands gave forth great volumes of music; thousands of throats cheered; pennants and balloons filled the air. There were tense moments when the Aggies broke a 7-7 tie in the latter part of the fourth period, after a sweeping march down the field in which Miller, Gill, Johnny McMillan and Wilson were the outstanding stars, with every member of the College Station team covering himself with glory. A forward pass from Miller to Gill accounted for 20 yards. McMillan was the Aggie chosen for the honor of pushing the pigskin over the line.

SECOND CROP TOMATO.

Mr. Wilson Bradley brought a tomato stalk to town yesterday from his home garden that had on it more than 100 well matured green tomatoes. He advises that his garden contained 150 or more of these plants, and when it is considered that from each of these a spring crop had already been harvested, this additional yield is somewhat remarkable in this section.

HOLICK-BORISKIE WEDS

A beautiful marriage ceremony was quietly solemnized at Saint Joseph's Catholic church in this city, Sunday, December 3rd, at 2 p. m., when Miss Emma Boriskie became the bride of Mr. E. A. Holick. Father J. B. Gleissner was the celebrant, and Miss Julia Parizek was maid of honor to the bride. Mr. Joe Holick, brother of the groom acted as best man. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boriskie of this city, and a young woman of pleasing personality, with many accomplishments. She wore on her wedding day an exquisite dress of navy blue satin crepe, with black picture hat, and accessories in harmonizing shade. Her bridal bouquet was a shower of white carnations and ferns. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holick, also of Bryan, and is connected with his father in business. He is a musician of ability, and also a young business man of sterling worth. Immediately after the marriage ceremony at the church, Mr. and Mrs. Holick departed by automobile for Waco and Dallas, where they will visit for several days with friends. They will make their home for the present with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holick. The Eagle joins the many friends of the happy young couple in best wishes for a long and happy life together.

The General committee of the Bryan and Brazos County Good Cheer Association to make plans for the spreading of Christmas cheer met Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at Carnegie Library with the following present: Messes Tyler Haswell, Joe Groginsky, Paul Densby, F. E. Lichte, H. B. McDowell, C. C. Wheeler and J. L. Brock. Messes George E. Hadley, F. L. Cavitt, S. E. Eberstadt and Dr. John A. Held. The Finance committee secretary S. O. Eberstadt and Rev. S. Moylan Bird will start the campaign for funds December 11, to carry on the work of the organization throughout the entire year. Every citizen knows the object and purpose of this organization, its name suggests that added to giving cheer it also relieves want and hunger. Bryan has responded to the call each year in the past liberally and she will this year. Remember the date, December 11. Mrs. Tyler Haswell, general chairman for the Municipal Christmas Tree had the matter fully discussed, but definite plans are not yet decided but committees and the date and place will be announced within the next few days.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBDEPT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason.

The Edge "Blue Ribbon Forty" club, under the leadership of Prof. P. S. Mangum, has made a splendid record this year, and they are planning for still bigger game next year. At the recent teachers' institute, held in Bryan on November 24, Mr. Mangum stated that the club work had aroused more interest in his school and community than anything else this year.

Successful Farming, December, quotes Senator Capper as saying in letter to the president, "Every farmer believes, and I agree with him, that the present deplorable situation of the farming industry is due, to some extent, to the extreme and unnecessarily drastic deflation policy of the Federal Reserve Board under Governor Harding, with its consequent terrible paralysis of agricultural credit, which in its duration and disastrous effect on the farming industry, has surpassed everything we experienced in panic times."

F. E. Jones, route 5, who recently moved here from Southwest Texas, is making some substantial improvement on his farm, repairing dwellings, barns, building poultry houses, cow sheds, etc., putting out home orchard, berries and whatever he finds will make the home happier and the farm more remunerative.

That is most encouraging to see others are trying to leave the farm as quickly as possible. Don't misunderstand us, we are not censuring the man for going to town. We regret that the situation on the farm is such as to detract any one rather than hold him closer to the industry he has been engaged in so long. In talking to one of the leading farmers of the county a short time ago about farming conditions, he stated that he was sick and tired of the papers trying to hold people on the farms when there was nothing in it for the man who tilled the soil. It does look very much this way, but at the same time, farming must go, and we venture the prediction that, notwithstanding the disadvantage at which the farmers are trying to operate, the man who stays with the farm, giving heed to economy and the principles that underly successful farming, including soil building, better livestock, home conveniences, and good school and better roads, will be the man in the years to come to whom the world will look as being the most independent and getting the most out of life. The business world is beginning to see, as never before, that the success of the farmer is a matter of deep concern to the man who would prosper in business. Business men are taking the time to help train farmers in matters of organization helpful in the distribution of farm products and making the farms more prosperous. Gentlemen, a better day is coming to farming, the basic industry of the world.

A county fair is an exhibition of farm products, livestock, poultry, and many other exhibits. At a county fair they award ribbons as prizes for the best exhibits. This causes many people to bring exhibits of what they raise to the fair. The boys and girls who belong to the agricultural clubs take part in the fair by bringing their livestock, poultry, farm crops, or whatever they have for their projects, and prepare them for exhibit.

The boy or girl who wins first prize on his or her exhibit will get a trip to some State fair.

The reason why a fair should be held in every county is because people bring to the fair exhibits of what other people do not know how to raise it. The people who don't know how to raise the kind of livestock and farm crops, poultry, etc., can observe and ask how to raise it, while other people go on in the same way. By having fairs the people will start to raising purchased livestock, standard bred poultry, better corn and cotton, and improve all farm crops.—Willie Holik.

Steep Hollow's community meeting last Saturday night came near being an overflow meeting, and it prompted I. M. Cook, one of the leading farmers not only of that community, but of the county, to say that the time had come for Steep Hollow to wake up and show her

BRYAN ELKS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Elks Lodge No. 858 of Bryan observed Memorial Day Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Elks Club and the ceremony was devoted to the memory of the deceased members A. M. Rhodes, G. W. Michael, T. F. Castles, G. W. Smith Jr., J. S. Mooring Sr., S. E. Rhodes, S. M. Derden Jr., E. J. Ette, G. S. Parker, G. M. Brandon Sr., W. G. Hatch, Bob St. John, H. G. Rhodes, A. G. Board, Phil Teeling, C. A. Adams, Jno. E. Astin, A. B. Smith, Earl Graham, S. W. Higgs, J. E. Butler, C. W. Elliott, G. W. Smith Jr., J. W. Howell, Jas. O. Chance, Jno. K. Parker and J. S. Doane. An appropriate memorial address was made by Mr. Lee J. Rountree. The following officers conducted the ceremonies: L. A. Spell, E. R.; H. G. Wickes, E. Leading K.; Carl Wipprecht, E. Loyak K.; Geo. M. Brandon, E. Lecturing K.; R. C. Stone, Esquire; Robt. A. Harrison, chaplain; Mason Cooper, tiler; W. B. Saunders, J. G.; C. S. Beckwith, secretary. A number of ladies and visitors were present at the ceremonies which was one of the best ever held in Bryan.

HUNTERS SLAUGHTER QUAIL

Mr. J. H. Wilson of Tabor, was here Saturday and was a visitor at the Eagle office. Mr. Wilcox said that during the fall he had on his farm two large coveys of quail and was watching them and waiting for December first to come. When he went out Friday he found only four quail in one covey and a colored woman told him that pot-hunters had killed all the quail a week or ten days before the open season. It seems strange when sportsmen go hunting doves they will kill every quail they can see days and weeks before the law permits. If this thing continues the quail and dove season will have to be made about fifteen days in December and the number of birds limited very small. This is the only way the sportsman who obeys the laws will get even a look-in. Mr. Wilcox will get no quail on toast this season as he is a law abiding citizen.

MR. COVEY RETURNS HOME

Mr. J. E. Covey returned Sunday from an important mission to Houston, New Orleans and Atlanta. While away he saw the Georgia Tech and Auburn football game in Atlanta on Thanksgiving day, but declares it was nothing to compare with the Aggie-Longhorn game from all reports. Mr. Covey visited the famous Stone Mountain, where the Confederate history will be engraved in stone and the sculptor told him the work would consume several years and cost $2,000,000 and would be a great tribute to the nation's patriotism and heroism.

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE AT TABOR

Special to The Eagle
TABOR, Tex., Nov. 29.—On last Thursday evening about 7:30 o'clock quite a few of the opossum hunters met at Mr. Isaac Harrison's and led and directed by Mr. G. W. Blanton, scoured the hills and the valleys till they found and captured one opossum. There were ten good dogs and sixty-five men, women, boys and girls in the hunt. Several from Bryan and College. Since I did not get all the names I shall not attempt to give any. But one of the most enjoyable features of the occasion was a stew made of fine fat hens, oysters, meat, rice and other things to make it tempting to which were added apples, roast peanuts, sandwiches and coffee. After these things were devoured around a big bright and warm fire, we all started for home, but possibly the thing that made it all somewhat romantic and thrilling was the crack, crack, crack, of some young man's automatic as a crowd of them galloped away on their fiery steeds ahead of the civil bunch.

Mr. Crenshaw and Mr. Batten are erecting an up-to-date garage in Tabor. Mr. Tom Benbow has built a new house on his farm. Miss Roten met with the Women's club at the high school today and conducted a class in paper flower making and painting. This woman's club will soon render a play at the high school entitled "The District School."

All the teachers of this district and two of our trustees, attended the teacher's meeting last Friday at the court house in Bryan.

The oil well at Tabor is getting ready to "spud in" about next Tuesday at which time the Tabor school will give a little program, crown the queen and christen the well as Victory Well No. 1. At that time we're expecting a big time. Better come out, Mr. Editor and write us up. Mr. Compton of the College band has kindly agreed to furnish the music for the occasion.

A Thanksgiving program will be held at the Cottonwood church on next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock and gifts of different kinds will be offered for the Buckner's Orphan Home.

Prof. and Mrs. Ammons, Prof. J. L. Cobb, Miss Susie Benbow, Miss Una Edge and Miss Margaret Marquet will leave next Thursday afternoon for Houston to the State Teacher's Association meeting.

Walter Armstrong and Nat Harison of Tabor were here today and report everything in readiness for spudding in Victory Well No. 1 this afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

TABOR WOMEN'S CLUB HELD GOOD MEETING

Miss Laura Belle Roten, the county home demonstration agent reports that the activity and splendid enthusiasm shown at the meeting of the Tabor Women's Club held in the Tabor High school last Monday at 2 o'clock is worthy of much praise. Thirteen women were present. The program was started with some demonstration work by Miss Roten. Following this were the reports of several committees.

Mrs. N. H. McWhorter, Mrs. Walter Armstrong and Miss Mary Locke the committee on Hot School Lunch reported that a beef had been arranged for at five cents a pound on the hoof, but that the meat would be prepared for canning without additional cost by the person from whom the beef is procured. Also when Mrs. Ammons, the capable home economics teacher, requested that milk be donated to the school to be used for hot lunches by members of the club, the ladies responded with a hearty free will. It was arranged so that each one could give milk on certain days of the week. This wonderful spirit is only one example of what the members of the Tabor Women's Club are showing in their work, and it is to be very highly commended.

The club expects to have an entertainment soon in the form of a play. Mrs. Chas. Locke, Mrs. Joe Locke and Mrs. J. Abbott, the play committee announced that the play had been selected and the various parts assigned. As a parting word, it will certainly behoove anyone to watch for the announcement of the date of the play, because of the energetic way in which Tabor does things surely speaks for itself that the play will be a great success.

A SUCCESSFUL BOX SUPPER AT LEONARD

(Special to the Eagle).
LEONARD, Brazos County, Texas, Dec. 1.—Approximately 200 people were present at the box supper at Leonard School November 24 which was a huge success. The boxes were auctioned by C. R. Gardner and the proceeds given to the school. Twenty six dollars was realized from the sale.

Mr. Charles B. Martin, the vocational teacher made a splendid talk in which he spoke of the advantages in building up the school spirit and the community. C. R. Gardner, of Bryan, made a fine address in behalf of better education. A delightful surprise in the form of a reading by little Miss Wava Martin was a decided hit. Miss Roten talked for a few minutes enumerating the results of the Girls' and Women's Club in expressing their desire for an organized club. Mrs. J. H. Jones promised to co-operate in notifying the ladies in the community and a meeting will be held soon.

Too much cannot be said in praise of Misses Nona Belle and Lola Jones the efficient teachers; Charles B. Martin, vocational teacher and the beautiful way in which each patron of the school is co-operating in building up the community spirit.

CONATELLO WELL NO. 1 NOW DOWN 841 FEET

F. E. Sheldon of Denver, Colorado, field manager for Conatello No. 1 well, four miles west of Bryan, is very optimistic over the drilling operations. Up to date the well is down 841 feet and Mr. Sheldon says the log of the well is running true to the report of Mr. Bird, geologist, who consulted with Julius Foch, geologist of Captain Humphrey before he made the report. The drill is rapidly going down through hard shell rock, lime formation and in every instance is running in accordance with the geological report on the structure. Hundreds of people from Bryan visited the well Sunday afternoon.

C. R. L. Jones was in the city on business today from his farm home in the Harvey community.
